DASCHUND BARRED BY DECENT DOGS

CINCINNATI, O., July 31.—Exit the boche daschund from the society of Cincinnati dogdom.

No longer will the lengthy canines which tradition has associated with link sausages find company with decent fidoes. A U. S. marine corps poster was responsible for the German doggie's social demise here. The poster depicts an American bulldog chasing a German daschund with the words, "Teufel Hunden (Devil Dogs), German nickname for U. S. marines."

Since the appearance of the marine poster, the local daschunds, of which there are a great number, have led a miserable existence, as small boys have "sliced" bulldogs, terriers, hounds and every other breed of canine on the poor "Fritzes," until at last they have been practically driven off the streets of Cincinnati.

STUDENT NURSE RESERVE RECRUITS WANTED BY THE UNITED STATES

The council of national defense will, within the next few days, launch a recruiting campaign in accordance with instructions received from the national headquarters, during which it will be their aim to secure as many women as possible for the United States student nurse reserve. Women between the ages of 19 and 35 years are wanted for this branch of the service. Those having finished high school or those having college education are preferred though this is not absolutely compulsory.

Those accepted in this service will be given free of all expense, a full course in nursing, comprising both training school and hospital work in this country. At the completion of this course they will be fitted to go to the front, provided the war is still in progress, or to take up the profession of nursing, one of the most highly respected and best paid fields of endeavor open to women.

L. A. BLAKESLEE DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

L. A. Blakeslee, one of Nevada's old-time residents to whose energy this state owes much of its growth, died of pneumonia at noon yesterday at his home, 737 Lake street, says the Reno Gazette. His death came as a great shock to relatives and hundreds of friends, as reports from his bedside were to the effect that he was improving and expected to be out in a few days. He had been ill ten days.

The death of Mr. Blakeslee removes one of the best known men in western Nevada, a man who has been a resident of this state since 1875 and of Reno for nearly a quarter of a century. He was not one of those who were attracted here by the great boom on the Comstock during the late '60s.

He came first to the state in 1869 from Illinois only to be called again by the lure of the west and to return in 1875 to make his home here. Railroad traffic to the west was heavy in those days and dining cars were unheard of. Seeing the opportunity Mr. Blakeslee became the proprietor of the old Humboldt House on the Central Pacific in Humboldt county and conducted the place with considerable success for a large number of years. It was while conducting this railroad eating house that he became acquainted with the late Senator George S. Nixon, then connected with the Southern Pacific, and the friendship lasted until Senator Nixon's death.

It was the strong friendship of the two that drew Mr. Blakeslee into politics and for years he was one of the leading figures in the Republican party in Nevada.

In 1887 Mr. Blakeslee, who had then become heavily interested in the cattle business, organized the First National bank at Winnemucca and put Mr. Nixon in as cashier. He was president of the bank and was one of the largest cattle owners in the state at the time.

MUST REMOVE COATS IN COFFEE HOUSES

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, July 31.—Frequenters of coffee houses in Vienna visited by secret traders in foodstuffs are no longer permitted to sit in their overcoats and hats or stand together, according to a decree issued by the government bureau of war supply, says a Vienna dispatch published in the Berlin Tageblatt of June 18th. The decree forbids also the checking of pieces of baggage and other packages in the coffee houses. The decree was issued because some of the Vienna coffee houses had become veritable storehouses for secret traders and because the "standing or sitting together of persons in their overcoats and hats" facilitated the escape from the coffee house of these persons who had reason to fear the police in case of an official investigation.

MASONIC MEETING A called convocation of Tonopah chapter No. 12, R. A. M., will be held in Masonic hall Wednesday evening, July 31, at 7:30. Work in Royal Arch degree. By order of High Priest.

GEO. A. SOUTHWORTH, Secretary.

A woman who enters the United States student nurse is serving her country and doing her patriotic duty as truly as is the man who fights on the firing line. The immediate result of placing 25,000 students, the number of volunteers asked for, in the hospitals of the country, will be to release a large number of graduate nurses who are very much needed in Europe at the present time. Then, as fast as the students now entering are fitted and competent to take the added responsibility, they too will be sent to help nurse our boys in the hospitals back of the firing line.

Any further information can be secured from Mrs. Roy Davenport, Mrs. C. L. Richards or Mrs. J. A. McGinn, these women having been appointed as the recruiting committee. As soon as the necessary blanks arrive a regular recruiting office will be opened in the offices of the Nye County Council of Defense.

MAN WHO SAVED VERDUN FROM HUNS

(By Associated Press) PARIS, July 31.—Major General Marie Louis Adolphe Guillaumat, recently appointed military governor of Paris, achieved fame by his historic defense of Verdun against the stupendous German onslaughts of 1916, by his cleverness in a French offensive on the Somme in which the forces under his command took 4000 prisoners, 23 heavy guns and 270 machine guns, and by his sagacity in the maneuvering of French troops in the Near East.

He received his first commission in 1884. He was made captain in 1893 and in this rank served in the Indo-China campaign in which he was severely wounded. He received the rank of general of division in 1914 after the outbreak of the war.

He was placed in command of the second army corps and charged with the defense of Verdun in 1916. On December 25, 1917, he was transferred to the command of the French armies of the Orient, replacing General Sarrail. He is 55 years old.

Three daughters, Mrs. Harry J. Humphrey of Reno, Mrs. F. E. Waits of Reno and Mrs. Andrew Hughes of Hobart Mills survive him. Several grand children also survive.

Mr. Blakeslee was seventy-four years old and was a native of Ohio.

USES JEWSHARP TO LURE TROUT

H. G. Taylor of the Belmont, who has just returned from a fishing trip through the western part of the state, says his greatest experience was at Walker lake, where Jim McLean, who looks after the interests of John H. Miller at that place, introduced him to a novelty in trapping the salmon trout which abound in the lake. Mr. Taylor vouches for the truth of the story which, otherwise, would be incredible, for he says that McLean can always bring in a boat load by simply going out on the lake in one of the motor boats and, instead of trolling for the finny denizens, he uses a jewsharp which lures the game to his craft.

Under this law the names of all candidates appear on the primary ballot without any official reference to their political affiliations and the two highest in the returns will be carried on the final ballot at the general election.

PARADE TOMORROW FOR THE BOYS GOING TO THE COLORS

The Musicians' Union band, the scouts and Red Cross contingents will turn out tomorrow morning to escort two boys to the depot en route to Camp Lewis. The other recruits covered by the call are now residents of widely separated points, but will respond promptly. A general invitation is extended to citizens to join the demonstration.

TONOPAH MINING COMPANY OFFICIALS

A distinguished party arrived last evening by auto direct from Wonder to remain in Tonopah and vicinity for several days before returning east. The members of the party are C. A. Higbee, secretary and treasurer of the Tonopah Mining company; J. Harvey Whitman, vice-president and general counsel of the same company; E. E. Carpenter, general manager, and E. G. Cupit, of the Nevada Wonder Mining company, of Wonder, Nev., and Barton Hoopes, Jr., of Philadelphia. The visitors are making a tour of the holdings of the companies they represent and have been on the road for twenty days, taking in the Colorado Placers company en route.

W. H. Blackburn general superintendent, formerly of Tonopah, arrived yesterday at New Orleans from Nicaragua and will leave by way of Chicago to visit the property of the company in Manitoba. He will be met by Mrs. Blackburn at Chicago and thence the trip will be made over the lines of the Canadian Pacific.

CHICKEN FIGHTERS PLACED UNDER BAN

(By Associated Press) DUBLIN, July 31.—The police are not getting much help from the magistrates in their campaign to put down cock fighting in Ireland. At Lurgan, when Joshua Leatham, described as the "second" for the Ulster birds in a great match at Kildare, was prosecuted for cruelty to the birds, his case was discharged on payment of costs. There were eight or nine hundred spectators at the cock-fight. The police warned the parties to disperse but as there were only twenty-two policemen present they were not sufficient to stop the proceedings.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT THE BUTLER

The attraction at the Butler today is an Artcraft production featuring the world renowned Douglas Fairbanks, in one of his very best pictures entitled "A Modern Musketeer." It is a regular Fairbanks fantasy photographed in God's own wonderland, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and the acrobatic stunts that Doug pulls among the jagged peaks and dizzy heights are nothing less than marvelous. As the story goes, Ned Thacker, through prenatal suggestions, is born in Kansas with a spirit of D'Artagnan, of Gascony, and naturally, his gallantries are very much misunderstood by maids and matrons of today, but when he falls in love with Dorothy Morane it takes something more than a millionaire rival to head him off, and it takes something more than a half-crazed Indian guide and the face of the Grand Canyon to keep him from the lady of his choice—not even her mother could not do that. His love was deeper than the Grand Canyon. Dumas had nothing on "Doug." It is absolutely one of Douglas Fairbanks' best pictures. Do not miss it. Pathe News will also be shown. One matinee and two night shows as usual.
